Pretty Sure.

If a man who has a product of his own to sell can continue to think well of it after he has interviewed two or three people who are trying to keep him from finding out that they really want to buy it, he is pretty sure to succeed the elements of success.

Do; Don't Talk.

Just do a thing and don't talk about it. This is the great secret of success in all enterprises. Talk means discussion; discussion means irritation; irritation means opposition; and opposition means hindrance always whether you are right or wrong.—Sarah Grand

GOOD TIP ABOUT CHECKS

Writing Out the Stub First is Easy and May Avert Much Trouble.

The West side woman was paying with a check for some articles she had bought at a department store, and she was carefully filling in the stub of her check book first. "Oh, don't stop for that," urged her shopping companion, who was in a hurry, "you can do that when you get home." Unmoved, the West side woman finished the stub with special care, then wrote the check, gave it to the salesman and said to her impatient friend: "Before I was married I took care of some of my father's accounts. The first time he ever asked me to fill out a set of blank checks for him so he could sign them he told me: 'One rule you must always observe: Write the stub first. Make a vow to yourself like unto the vow of Jephtha that you will never write a check until the stub is filled. If for any reason you should fail later to write the check it would be a simple matter to cancel the stub, but if you write a check and leave the stub blank you open the door to a hundred chances of mistake. No one's memory can be trusted on that subject. Never try to trust yours. Let the law of "the stub first be to you as the law of the Medes and Persians." I have always found it perfectly easy to follow that rule and that is one reason I have a bank account today. My husband is never afraid I will make him any trouble with it."

A LONG CHASE

Chumpe—You may not love me now, but marry me, and love will surely follow.

Miss Flirtly—Yes, but I'm afraid he'd never catch up with us.

A 23-POUND CAT.

Tip, a giant cat, owned by Mrs. O. F. Duncan of this city, is said to be the largest cat in the United States and Canada. Tip is closely followed in the race for weight honors by his brother, Tot, who weighs 20 pounds, three pounds less than the other cat. The cats are eight years old. Tip is 30 inches long from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail and his neck is 5½ inches in circumference. Every day each cat consumes 1½ pounds of round steak and a pint of milk. How the cats came to grow so large is a mystery even to the owner. She said they had received the same care as other animals of this kind.—South Bend Cor. Indianapolis News.

CHAGRINED.

The marine architect was submitting his plans of the great ocean liner to the president of the steamship company.

"Here we have the race course," he said, indicating the place with his finger.

"But that crowds too much on the golf links," objected the president.

With considerable chagrin the architect was forced to admit that he had been obliged to curtail his plans to merely a nine-hole course.

FORCED TO FALSEHOOD.

"There are some people," said Mr. Growcher, "who seem determined to force you into falsehood."

"To whom do you refer?"

"The superficially genial person who says, 'Ah! Did you have a pleasant summer?' You are simply compelled to say 'Yes.' If you don't, he'll scent a dark secret and insist on a long explanation of what the trouble was."

WHOLESALE AFFECTION.

"He told me he had never loved before."

"Oh, well; you mustn't count one or two times."

"I wouldn't. But I find that the last winter he loved practically an entire seminary."
